IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Our faculty and fellows will evaluate each participant at the end of the rotation ,
Letters of Recommendation may be requested via ERAS the same year you apply for residency.
Letters of Recommendation will be based on your evaluation. Please be aware of the following important information:

Virtual Rounds will be streamed via Zoom. All course content, links to the Zoom sessions, and videos are accessed through the given link.

For Online delivery of the course content, active participation in the sessions, and minimal technical issues during the exam, require reliable Wi-Fi, a desktop computer or laptop with a webcam, speakers, and a microphone. A functional webcam required for the exams: during the assessments, students join a Zoom meeting with their cameras on and positioned to function as the virtual proctor. We strongly recommend using wired headphones and require the use a computer for the course assessment. Tablets, wireless headphones, or earbuds may be used during the course while reviewing the content and assigned e-learning programs as you choose.

Please confirm you have a computer and reliable Wi-Fi on your application.
